CLERK SUPREME COURT

On December 18, 2014, the Iowa Supreme Court adopted amendments to chapter 46 of the Iowa Court Rules, providing for reciprocal shorthand reporting licensing of veterans who hold a valid reporting license in good standing in another state. In that order, the court directed the Board of Examiners of Shorthand Reporters (the board) to investigate and report back on whether the court should adopt a general rule of reciprocity of licensure for other persons who hold a valid reporting license in good standing in another state.

The board filed its report and proposed amendments to adopt a general rule of reciprocity. The proposed amendments primarily include a new rule 46.17 addressing certification by reciprocity. The proposed amendments were published for comment, and the court has considered the public comments received on the amendments.

Effective immediately, the court adopts the amendments to chapter 46 of the court rules, including new rule 46.17, as provided with this order.

Dated this 15th day of October, 2015.
